Event Details

IZUMO Cross-cultural Food Festa is a food festival that serves multicultural cuisines as fusion-style dishes from different countries or regions. Ten restaurants will participate in the event. There is also a place for children to play games from around the world.

The event will be held in collaboration with "Dandan Starry Sky Concert" where you can enjoy music under the starry sky.

Tabunka-meshi entails original fusion-styled cuisines that aims to respectfully understand and develop each other's food cultural background.

Dandan Starry Sky Concert 2023

The Dandan Starry Sky concert originates from Imaichi—a town known for its music—and began in 2012. The concert consists of participants of all ages who sing, dance, and play instruments. While the younger children participate in cute performances, the older participants perform at a high artistic level. Please enjoy the performances of the Dandan Starry Sky concert.
